E-GRAZATHLON code of honor

16 obstacles – 4 guidelines:

We don't want to bother you with any behavioral rules for the E-GRAZATHLON, however, we'd like you to bear in mind these 4 guidelines that will give you an impression of what the spirit of the E-GRAZATHLON is all about:

1. To finish and have fun is more important than winning.
2. Safety first!
3. Help other participants when they need your help.
4. Behave like real sportsmen and sportswomen – don't jostle or hinder other participants, especially not at the obstacles.

What to wear

Here are some rules for the right outfit:

- Shoes: Spikes are not allowed. We suggest running shoes with higher profile.
- Clothes: We are hoping for good weather so shorts and a t-shirt will be fine. Knee protectors or knee length trousers can avoid abrasions.
- Gloves: We suggest to at least wear cycling gloves to better overcome some obstacles.
